

Graduate Studies

PROGRAMS

MScCH (HPTE)	MScCH (FCM)	MPH (FCM)
5.0 Full Credits	5.0 Full Credits	10 Full Credits
1 year full-time, up to 6 years part-time	1 year full-time, up to 6 years part-time	2 years full-time, up to 6 yrs part-time
Intro to Public Health	Intro to Public Health	Intro to Public Health
Public Health Policy	Patient Related Health Care and Public Policy in Canada	Patient Related Health Care and Public Policy in Canada
	Social, Political and Scientific Issues in Family Medicine	Social, Political and Scientific Issues in Family Medicine
Teaching and Learning: Principles and Theories And Teaching and Learning: Practical Issues and Approaches	Research Issues in Family Medicine / Primary Care Or Appraising and Applying Evidence to Assist Clinical Decision-Making	Teaching and Learning: Principles and Theories And Teaching and Learning: Practical Issues and Approaches
Clinical Education Practicum (160hrs)	Fieldwork Practicum (160hrs)	Fieldwork Practicum (320hrs)
Choose one pair of courses: Continuing Education in Health Professions Part I and II Or Field-based Education: Curriculum Foundations and Assessment/Evaluation Issues	Leading Improvement in the Quality of Health Care for Community Populations Or Practical Management Concepts and Cases in Leading Small Health Organizations	Quality Improvement Appraising and Applying Evidence to Assist Clinical Decision-Making Research oriented course (one of CHL5605H, CHL5220H, CHL5401H or equivalent)
3 half credits of elective courses	3 half credits of elective courses	9 half credits of elective courses
Director: Dr. Abbas Ghavam-Rassoul	Director: Dr. Julia Alleyne	Director: Dr. Julia Alleyne

More information on these programs

dfcm.utoronto.ca/graduate-studies
familymed.grad@utoronto.ca

Graduate Studies

ADMISSIONS

Admissions Requirements	Application Documents
Four-year bachelor's degree or its equivalent from a recognized university	Application Form Online: https://apply.sqs.utoronto.ca/
Mid-B average in final year of the degree or in the last 5.0 credits completed at a senior level	Letter of Intent Outline your reasons for pursuing admission, relevant experience and background
Valid license to practice in Canada or home jurisdiction	Curriculum Vitae
Relevant professional experience and current employment in a regulated health professional field	Scanned Transcripts Include transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate studies
Proof of English language proficiency if previous studies were completed outside Canada where English was not the language of instruction or the native language	Two Letters of Reference Choose referees who can comment on your academic ability and potential to succeed in a graduate program
GRE scores are not required An undergraduate statistics course is recommended	English Proficiency Test Scores If applicable

Application Timeline	Deadline
Applications Available	October 15, 2018
Application Deadline	January 18, 2019
Application Review and Interviews	February to April
Notification of Decision	March to June

More information on admissions www.dlsph.utoronto.ca/students/future-students/admissions.dlsph@utoronto.ca