

2026 BUILD-YOUR-OWN-ADVENTURE SUMMER EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES MD STUDENTS' YEAR 1 + 2

Program Name	Family Medicine Immersion Week FMI WEEK	Family Medicine Community Longitudinal Leadership Enrichment Opportunity FM CLLEO Summer Program	Lester and Jean Gagnon Summer Student Scholarship (GAGNON)
Schedule	June 8-12, 2026, 8am-5pm (FMI must be completed to participate in any of the other opportunities)	Mid-June, July-August 2026	Mid-June, July and first week of August 2026
Format	In-Person	In-Person	In-Person
Who Can Apply?	First- and Second-Year MD Students	First- and Second-Year MD Students	Second Year MD Students
Prerequisites		Must complete FMI Week	Must complete 1 week of ROMP (June 1-5, 2026) Must Complete FMI Week Must Complete FM CLLEO Summer Program
What's Included	Hands-on clinical skills training and presentations related to family medicine. 2 days of Observership June 9, 11, 2026	Hands-on clinical skills training and presentations related to family medicine. 1 day of Observership June 11, 2026 1 half day of data, professional collaboration, and MI training for FM CLLEO students 3 half clinic days (coordinated with Preceptor)	Hands-on clinical skills training and presentations related to family medicine. 1 day of Observership June 11, 2026 1 half day of data, professional collaboration, and MI training for FM CLLEO students 3 half clinic days (coordinated with Preceptor)
Description:	Aa unique opportunity for first- and second-year medical students to really explore what a career in Family Medicine can look like. Students will benefit from an engaging and varied schedule which will include talks from family medicine experts, clinical skills workshops (including punch biopsies, pelvic exams/pap screening, injections,	Upon successful completion of FMI Week and the FM CLLEO training, students will have the opportunity to observe firsthand the invaluable role family physicians play in the communities they work in. This opportunity allows student learners to collaborate closely with a community family physician, focusing on preventive care. Supported by OntarioMD, you will use extracted EMR practice data to identify patients who are in need of preventive care, schedule patient appointments, and	Lester and Jean Gagnon Summer Student Scholarship (GAGNON) program is a paid 7-week opportunity. Participants gain clinical experience, explore family medicine within a clinical setting, and receive mentorship. The program includes leadership, scholarship, and advocacy components. Students engage with family physicians in academic and community settings. As part of the program requirements students must spend a week in a rural baby delivery, and other clinical skills). Students will have the opportunity to shadow a family physician in their clinical office around the city.	perform direct patient care to aid in preventative efforts. Students and their family physician preceptor will mutually agree upon a schedule, dedicating a minimum of three half days throughout the summer to complete the program objectives.	setting through the program ROMP and complete the summer FM-CLLEO program focusing on preventative health.

Learning Objectives	Understand the diversity and opportunity available in a career in family medicine. Demonstrate family physician relevant clinical skills (i.e., injections, pap tests, suturing). Describe a typical clinic day in a family physician's office with a focus on how the four principles of family medicine apply.	Use data to drive clinical decision-making. Obtain direct exposure to patients through appointment bookings and in-person preventative care efforts. Improve access to care in high priority communities.	Students will gain insights into diversity and various career opportunities within family medicine. Students will acquire relevant clinical skills in both simulated and in-clinic environments. Through clinical exposure, mentorship, and role modeling, participants will develop a strong professional identity within the field of family medicine.
Program Completion Requirements:	Must attend all 5 FMI days to receive participation certificate.	Must complete FMI Week + Must complete 3 half days of clinic (Can claim up to 12 hours of EEE)	Must complete ROMP week + Must complete FMI Week + Must complete 4 weeks of clinic at an assigned academic site + Must complete 3 half days of clinic with a community preceptor (FM CLLEO)
Cohort Size	50	20	4

Family Medicine Immersion Week & Gagnon Scholarship Program

Dr. Sherylan Young, MD, CCFP, FCFP

Associate Professor, Director Undergraduate Medical Education Department of Family and Community Medicine, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto

Dr. Lauren Payne, MD, CCFP, MPH

Medical Student Leadership and Engagement Lead, Undergraduate Medical Education Department of Family and Community Medicine, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto

Family Medicine Community Longitudinal Leadership Enrichment Opportunity

Dr. Karen Weyman, MD, MEd, CCFP, FCFP

Chief, Department of Family and Community Medicine, St. Michael's Hospital, Unity Health Toronto Associate Professor, Department of Family and Community Medicine (DFCM), Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto Office of Health Systems Partnerships - Education Lead, Department of Family and Community Medicine, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto

Dr. Ryan Banach, MD, CCFP, FCFP

Lead Physician, Norfinch FHO, Lead, Family Medicine Early Career Supports, Office of Health System Partnership Department of Family and Community Medicine, Temerty Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto