

Curriculum Map – Breast Diseases Enhanced Skills Program

| Block dates                          | Block 1   | Block 2   | Block 3                              | Block 4                                 | Block 5                       | Block 6                                     |
|--------------------------------------|---|---|--------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------|---|
| Calendar points               | Orientation with PD   |   | PD meets with resident               |   |                               | PD meets with resident: graduation decision |
| Rotation                      | Diagnostics (radiology, pathology, genetics, GPO clinics)   | Surgical Oncology   | Medical oncology                     | Radiation oncology                      | Survivorship/ plastic surgery | Elective/career exploration                 |
|                                      | Longitudinal family medicine clinic at Women’s College Hospital Family Practice   |   |                                      |   |                               |   |
| Planned Assessments           |   |   | Mid program review                   |   |                               |   |
|                                      | POWER ITER for each rotation, Field notes -ideally 2 per rotation   |   |                                      |   |                               |   |
| Learning/teaching experiences |   |   | 8-9 AM departmental teaching session | Weekly lunch time tumor board rounds    |                               |   |
|                                      | CCO Indigenous Relationship and Cultural Safety Modules x 3, facilitate CBL genetics session, facilitate breast health academic half day at WCH |   |                                      |   |                               |   |
| Scholarly Project             | Orientation with PD, come up with project idea  | Work on scholarly project (dedicated half days throughout schedule) |                                      | Submit final project/presentation to PD |                               |   |

Contact: Dr. Orli Shachar, program director (orli.shachar@wchospital.ca)